

TERRITORIAL AND COUNTY NEWS

CATTLEMEN'S CONVENTION IS ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION

PHOENIX, Jan. 21.—Much interest is being taken in the approaching session of the American National Live Stock association, to be held in Los Angeles, January 26 to 28. The call for this very important meeting has previously appeared in this paper, and a full program of the meeting has now been received. It shows that Arizona has been especially honored in its make-up, as addresses will be delivered by E. S. Gosney, president of the Arizona's Wool Growers' association, and Dwight B. Heard, president of the Arizona Cattle Growers' association.

Mr. Heard, when asked by a Republican reporter as to the meeting, said that from all he could learn, the convention would be one of the most important and well attended yet held by the American National Live Stock association.

Mr. Heard continued: "I received a letter from T. W. Tomlinson, secretary of the association, who has been in Los Angeles for the last thirty days preparing for the convention, advising me that they are expecting a record attendance. Two special cars of cattlemen are coming from Texas, and one special car from Colorado, and almost all the western states will have large delegations."

Mr. Heard further said: "The cattlemen of the territory have never had an opportunity to attend a National Live Stock convention at such a slight expense as they can this time. The roundtrip rate from here to Los Angeles for this particular occasion is $23.85, and we are going to get enough cattlemen from this section to attend the convention to make up a special car, leaving here Saturday evening, January 23."

Many of the most prominent cattlemen in the territory have signified their intention of attending the convention, and Mr. Heard earnestly requests, in order to arrange for a special car, that all those expecting to attend will leave their names at his office, corner Central and Adams streets, in the next few days. Following is the program:

Tuesday, January 26, 10 O'clock A. M. Invocation—Dr. J. S. Thompson. Addresses of Welcome—Hon. A. C. Harper, mayor of Los Angeles; Hon. H. Stewart, president chamber of commerce.

Response—Hon. John W. Springer, Denver, Colo. Annual address of president; appointment of committees; roll call; reports of standing committees.

"Our Foreign Markets"—Hon. W. A. Harris, Lawrence, Kansas. Two O'clock P. M. Music; introduction and reference of resolutions.

"Land Laws: Their Administration and Effect"—Hon. Joseph M. Carey, Cheyenne, Wyo.

"What the Live Stock Industry Demands of Congress"—Hon. S. H. Cowan, attorney American National Live Stock association.

"The Loco Investigation"—C. D. Marsh, expert, bureau of plant industry, Washington, D. C.

"Tariff on Hides, Wool and Live Stock"—General discussion. January 27, 10 A. M. Music.

"Meat Inspection"—Dr. O. E. Dyson, Chicago, Ill.

"Benefits Derived From Live Stock Organizations and Co-operation"—T. Pryor, president Cattle Raisers association of Texas.

Address—Hon. Gifford Pinchot, chairman National Conservation commission, Washington, D. C.

Address—E. S. Gosney, president Arizona Wool Growers association. Two O'clock P. M. Music.

"Live Stock Conditions in California"—Dr. C. M. Haring, veterinarian, University of California.

"Federal Control of Public Grazing Lands"—Dwight B. Heard, president Arizona Wool Growers' association.

"The Future of the Cow-Map"—J. C. Underwood, of Wyoming, secretary Laramie County Cattle and Horse Growers' association.

General discussion of administration of forest reserves, and proposed government control of the open range.

January 28, 10 O'clock A. M. Music; consideration of resolutions; general business; election of officers; selection of next place of meeting; adjournment.

Entertainment. For delegates, members and friends. Tuesday evening, January 26, 8 o'clock—Reception in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, 128 South Broadway.

Wednesday evening, January 27, 8 o'clock—Athletic contest and reception in Y. M. C. A. building, 721 Scott Hope street.

Thursday afternoon, January 28, 2 o'clock—automobile ride, starting from chamber of commerce.

Friday morning, January 29, 9 o'clock—Trip to Pasadena, etc., starting from the Pacific electric depot.

Saturday afternoon, January 30, 2 o'clock—Driving club matinee at Agricultural park.

Falconry is about the cheapest sport in existence, so there is no reason why the workingman should not enjoy it—that is, when there is common land. It is also the most humane blood sport.

The pursued has always the advantage. Then, when the end does come, how often death is instantaneous. There is, too, no escaping with an ugly wound. If escape at all is effected the quarry gets away unhurt.

—Fre's Magazine.

BUFFALO BILL ENJOYS LIFE NEAR TUCSON

Likes To Prospect—Climate Commented On—Predicts Great Arizona Future—Was Rounded Up By Pretty Girls.

TUCSON, Jan. 21.—Buffalo Bill (W. F. Cody) returned from Oracle yesterday afternoon, where he has been inspecting several mining properties with Captain John D. Burgess. He was very much impressed with the mineral section of the country, and believes Tucson has a great future as a mining center. He leaves this morning for New York to round up capital with which to purchase some of the property which he visited. He said when interviewed: "I am very much impressed with the mineral lay of the country, but of course, like all mining properties, it takes capital to produce the wealth. No doubt, there is a great future for Arizona, and I believe it is on the eve of a boom. I think all the great wealth of Nevada will drift this way the coming year, and with it Arizona will make a big mining country. It is my candid opinion that you have got the goods."

"During the last four days I have walked 150 miles and examined about twenty mining properties in that length of time. The Old Hat district, 'Camp Bonita' strikes me most favorably. I am going east now to see my partner, and I think I will get a batch of them out here within the next sixty days. Two weeks ago I was in northern Wyoming and it snowed two feet and was 22 degrees below zero, while we were packing goods to our mines. It is quite a change to come from there to this warm climate, and it made me perspire to prospect this weather. I don't know which is worse, heat or snow, but I am acquainted with both. I am a born prospector. I don't do it because I have to, but because I like it. I would rather be out here prospecting than live in New York all the time with all the money in the world. A few winters ago I rode a thousand miles through northern Wyoming, Utah, and all up and down the Grand Canyon prospecting. I have a suggestion to make to the people of Tucson, and that is that they should have a railroad from here to Mammoth to tap the mining country up there if they want to get that trade. I am a pretty good judge of railroads—where they ought to go."

"I was surprised to find a beautiful little winter resort up in the mountains called Oracle, and about twenty as pretty women as I ever saw. They rounded me up and I was photographed with the whole bunch. They wanted me to stop over and get up a dance or a shooting match, but I couldn't do it."

ALL COUNTIES ATTEND SUPERVISORS' MEETING

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

TUCSON EAGLES MAY BUILD BIG AERIE

Part of a Building Boom Which Has Struck the Old Pueblo.

TUCSON, Jan. 22.—With the building boom that has struck Tucson within the past few months comes the good news that there is a plan on foot to construct a home for the fraternal Order of Eagles in this city, at a cost of at least $25,000, and possibly more.

While plans have not been made as yet for the building, it will be a two story brick and the second floor will be used for lodge meetings. Particular attention will be paid to the making of a large hall that may be utilized for lodge meetings and also for dances.

At the meeting of the order Tuesday night, a committee was appointed to incorporate a building association. The Eagles now hold options is probable that one of those, close in, on four very valuable locations and it will be selected as the site for the building, which will be erected in the near future.

In addition to the proposed erection of this building, it is said that prominent parties in Tucson are considering the building of an up to date opera house, and there is a probability that plans for this will shortly be drawn up. It is probable that the Eagles and the opera house buildings will be built on adjoining lots, which will add greatly to the general beauty of the city.

ALL COUNTIES ATTEND SUPERVISORS' MEETING

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

PHOENIX, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—At the first day's session of the Arizona Association of County Supervisors a remarkable attendance of members added interest to the proceedings, every county being represented, some by more than one member. An attorney was employed by the association and the work of preparing a number of bills for presentation to the legislature was begun in earnest. Roads and their maintenance, care of indigents, bonds of county officers and other matters were discussed. A motion prevailed to adopt a petition to the legislature petitioning that body to memorialize congress to build a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma. The meetings of the association will continue for several days.

POPULAR GLOBE MAN SHORT IN ACCOUNTS

Walter Dayton, Recent President Water Co. Arrested On a Serious Charge.

GLOBE, Jan. 22.—Walter Dayton, who recently resigned the presidency of the Globe County Abstract company, was arrested on a warrant sworn to by F. F. Towle, the secretary for the company, charging embezzlement of $1700 of the funds of the concern.

The news, which spread rapidly through the business district, was received in every quarter with expressions of deep regret, for Mr. Dayton was one of the most popular and generally esteemed young men in the city, and the conviction was freely expressed that he would have no trouble in clearing up his affairs or what was considered but a momentary embarrassment.

The defendant was set at liberty an hour or so after his arrest, his bond having been fixed by Justice Hinson Thomas at $2000, which was promptly furnished by F. C. Anderson, George H. Smalley, Forest C. Kaldenberg and George Brown.

When seen at the sheriff's office, where he was detained pending the fixing of the bond, Dayton declined to make any statement further than that he expected to quickly straighten out his affairs.

"Mr. Dayton confessed the shortage to me," said Secretary Towle to the Silver Belt at the office of the company. "Nobody regrets the business more than I do, but there was no way out of it. I was preparing to close up the year's books and was not yet certain that anything was wrong, when Mr. Dayton walked up and told me that he was short. He does not know what he did with the money."

"Will the prosecution be dropped if the company is reimbursed?" Mr. Towle was asked.

"Oh, no," he replied. "That would be impossible under the law. The matter is now in the hands of the district attorney," and he added, "I wish it could be stopped, but it cannot, and there will also be a civil suit instituted."

The following members were in attendance: Apache—Fred Coalter. Navajo—H. R. Gardner, James Scott.

Cocconino—Jesse Gregg. Yavapai—Barney Smith, J. W. Stewart, George P. Harrington. Mohave—John C. Potts.

Yuma—J. A. Shanssey, W. E. Marvin, A. H. Kent. Pima—C. H. Bayless. Santa Cruz—G. W. Parker, A. J. Ashborn, A. S. Henderson.

Cochise—G. J. McCabe. Graham—Henry Downen. Pinal—George Webster. Gila—W. Ryan, T. Rose. Pinal—F. J. McCarthy.

ARIZONA & NEW MEXICO RAILWAY COMPANY.

SCHEDULE Effective November 22nd, 1908.

A. M. P. M. 8:05.....Clifton, A. T.....5:44 8:23.....North Siding, A. T.....5:23 8:28.....South Siding, A. T.....5:18 8:42.....Guthrie, A. T.....5:04 8:47.....Guthrie, A. T.....4:59 8:52.....Coronado, A. T.....4:54 9:03.....York, A. T.....4:43 9:20.....Sheldon, A. T.....4:26 9:39.....Duncan, A. T.....4:02 9:59.....Thomson, A. T.....3:46 10:20.....Summit, N. M.....3:26 10:36.....Velich, N. M.....3:10 10:50.....L. & H. Junction.....2:55 10:55.....Lordsburg, N. M.....2:50 11:10.....Lordsburg, N. M.....2:35 11:15.....L. & H. Junction.....2:30 11:20.....Oil Siding, N. M.....2:25 11:26.....Robert, N. M.....2:10 11:53.....Brookman, N. M.....1:52 12:25.....Huchita, N. M.....1:29

*P. M. for further information apply to nearest agent or to NORMAN CARMICHAEL, Asst Gen'l Supt.

A. T. THOMSON, Treasurer, CLIFTON, A. T.

ARIZONA INSURANCE AGENCY